

The KENYA Airlift Program Onboarding Agreement

Dear Student,

Congratulations! This is the official confirmation that you have been accepted into The KENYA Airlift Program as a parallel option student.

Once you sign this onboarding agreement, you will receive communication on how to log into our student portal where you will have access to all the student resources.

For easier communication within the program, you have been assigned an airlift email account which you must use moving forward for all official communication in the program. Email credentials will be communicated to you as part of the onboarding process.

For any questions or concerns that needs immediate attention, you are advised to engage our customer service representatives in The KENYA Airlift Program telegram group. Access to the program's telegram group will be given to you as part of the onboarding process.

As a parallel option student, you are not required to study and pass the GMAT/GRE exam. Please note, if you were approved with an alternative to study the GMAT/GRE exam to become a regular option student, you will have to pay for both the training and for the exam. Please note, self-study GMAT/GRE materials are available in the student portal for FREE. If you were approved to join the program by having a cosigner because your gpa was less than 3.0, you are not allowed to sit for the GMAT exam and therefore you cannot shift to the regular option of the program.

If you fail, you will only be allowed to retake the test one more time which you will still have to pay out of your own pocket for that second attempt. If you fail for the second time, you cannot shift to the regular option of the program, and you must continue with the relocation process as a parallel option student.
